Cathedral

The Aachen Cathedral is one of the most famous examples of occidental architecture. It is the coronation church of more than 30 German kings, burial site of Charlemagne, major pilgrimage church and cathedral church of the Aachen diocese since 1930. In 1978 it was the first German building to be included in the UNESCO World Heritage list. A guided tour is therefore an essential part of any visit to Aachen and a ‘must’ for anyone who loves historic buildings and churches (see guided tours page 15).

Rathaus

At the beginning of the 14th century the Aachen citizenship built the gothic ‘Rathaus’ (town hall) on the foundation walls of the derelict palace building of Charlemagne. Between 936 and 1531 the banquets of the Aachen royal coronation ceremonies were held at this place. Today the monumental coronation hall still reminds of this time. There are also reproductions true to the originals of the imperial regalia, among them the imperial crowns, swords and the gospel books of sovereigns of the Middle Ages.

Admission: € 6,-, reduced price € 3,-, free admission for children & young people under 22 years

Centre Charlemagne – Neues Stadtmuseum Aachen

The new city museum ‘Centre Charlemagne – Neues Stadtmuseum Aachen’ in the heart of the former palatinate area of Charlemagne brings important stages of the city’s history to life: the Carolingian time, in which Aachen became the centre of the Franconian Empire, the city of coronations and sophisticated health resort of the baroque period. In the history laboratory you can immerse into Carolingian daily life and try out many things yourself: How heavy was a chain mail? What kind of cloths did ordinary people wear? What was the ink made of used for the magnificent scripts?

Couven Museum

Until the 12th of October 2019 the Couven Museum will be closed owing to renovation work.

Since 1958 the ‘House Monheim’ in the historical city centre of Aachen has been an exhibition place of particularly impressive upper middle-class cultivation of home décor. The rooms form a harmonious ensemble of various interior design styles from Rococo to the Biedermeier era. In a large room display cabinet a selection of magnificent silver utensils of the 18th century are e.g. presented. More practical equipment in the kitchen – coffee roaster, coffee grinder and porcelain tableware – shows that luxury drinks as coffee, tea and chocolate also found their way into middle-class life.

Grashaus
Aachen is the city of the Charlemagne Prize and has the special commitment of introducing young people to the topic of Europe. This takes place in the ‘Grashaus’, which represents the station ‘Europe’ of the Route Charlemagne. The ‘Grashaus’ is one of the oldest buildings in Aachen and of great historical importance. Although the educationalists have adjusted themselves to their young audience with monumental comic drawings of the Berlin artist Andree Volkmann and modern interactive media stations, the beautiful old architecture has well been preserved. After registration – visitors can visit the house with the historic charter hall and the central hall called ‘chapel’.

Admission: Only within booked groups or as participant of the public guided tour € 2,- (see tip)

Suermondt-Ludwig-Museum

Our favorite spots

For us Aachen definitely is the most beautiful city in the world! To prove this, we present you a selection of our personal favourite spots. Let you be inspired by us for your stay in Aachen: My favourite spot in Aachen...

...are the front steps of the town hall.

Especially on sunny days me and my friends like to sit on the front steps of the town hall to exchange the news of the day, enjoy the sun, watch people pass by and I am each time amazed at the most beautiful sight Aachen has to offer – Aachen cathedral! My personal tip: get there early enough at events e.g. the wine festival “WeinSommer” and at the cathedral jumping event “Domspringen”, which take place on the Katschhof. Otherwise the best places in the town hall steps have gone. Whether in summer with a frozen yoghurt or in winter with a café to go – the town hall steps are like a premier seat with gigantic view of my personal favourite cathedral.

Kathrin, former trainee
...is the tower „Bismarckturm“.

From up there you have a fantastic view of the city: tranquillity and distant view let quickly forget the hustle and bustle below. You can also clearly see the University Clinic and the visit is free! Against presentation of your identity card or similar, the friendly staff of the cemetery office (left at the front entrance) hand out the key. Follow the way half right over the cemetery of honour and you will reach the Bismarckturm in approx. 4 min walking distance – in the middle of the green area. In the past adults paid 10 pfennig entrance fee – unbelievable, the “good old times”.

Reinhard Mäurer, city guide

...is the quarter „Frankenberger Viertel“.

I have been living here for more than eight years and I still find myself walking through the streets with my eyes wandering up the wonderful facades of the Frankenberg old town houses. I would really like to see one or the other town villa from inside. Summer is the most beautiful season in the Frankenberger Viertel, when everybody sits in front of a café or in the park to enjoy the sun.

Claire, team marketing & communication

...is the town hill „Lousberg“.

Only the way there, over the Veltmanplatz, along the memorial, walking the Kupferstraße and then up the Belvedere Alley is an experience; in only a few minutes from town into a green area. On top of the Lousberg you can always discover new paths, find places that you have never seen before. Beautifully designed flower beds show the importance of this place for Aachen citizens. Walking uphill is rewarded with a fabulous view of Aachen from high up. Again and again an experience!

Vennbahn

The Vennbahn belongs to the longest rail trail cycling tracks in Europe. While the track was formerly mainly used for the transport of coal and iron ore for more than 100 years, today cyclists pass the three countries Germany, Belgium and Luxembourg. The track is mainly asphalted and accompanied by nature, borderland flair and Vennbahn history. It can also easily be managed by untrained sportspersons and families.

Hiking in the ‘Aachener Wald’

A junction point system marks walking and hiking tours around Aachen. Numbered junction points at 90 locations make planning of hiking tours easier for walkers and hikers and facilitate orientation in the ‘Aachener Wald’. Of the about 220 kilometres hiking track network in the ‘Aachener Wald’ 80 kilometres have currently been marked with junction point numbers.

Note

125 km long cycling and hiking path from Aachen to Troisvierges (LUX)
Average gradient 2 %
(offside the track 3-10 % is possible)

Tip
A map with all junctions is available at the information point Tourist Info Elisenbrunnen and in many municipal offices.
Eifelsteig

True to the motto: ‘where rock and water accompany you’ the Eifelsteig is characterised by a varied, close-to-nature route with a high percentage of natural paths, magnificent views and a great number of formation changes: From the highland moors of the Hohe Venn and beech hedges of the Monschau countryside, which are partly as high as the houses, through the national park Eifel with rock passage ways to especially impressive volcanic lakes near Daun and through the south of the Eifel to the destination Trier.

GrenzRouten

On the GrenzRouten you can explore the landscape, culture and history of the three-country region Germany, Belgium and the Netherlands. The routes lead through the wide hedged landscape of East Belgium, along rows of gnarled beech trees at the historic Landgraben of the Aachen Empire to the Limburg Heuvelland. The 6 to 19 km long loop trails additionally offer theme tours through the three countries and their common border country history.

Grünmetropole

Nature pure, interesting sights, places of historical interest and cultural variety. TheGrünmetropole is worth a visit! The region Aachen-Düren-Heinsberg offers the visitor exciting adventure possibilities and contrasts within a small area. Abandoned areas characterized by industry, extensive heath landscapes and river valleys are waiting for you to be discovered.

The pedestrian zone with its small shops and their varied offer around the market square of Burtscheid, the weekly market as well as cafés and restaurants offer many possibilities to stay and linger. The Burtscheid spa gardens invite you for walks or simply relax under old trees. Right at the Burtscheid market square there are also the handicapped accessible guest facilities of the spa administration “Haus des Gastes”.

Already in early times the Romans in the former “Porcetum” discovered hot springs and used them for alleviation of diseases. Today the spa and rehabilitation facilities are mainly located in Burtscheid. Therefore, Aachen is permitted to call itself “Bad Aachen”.

Burtscheid is Aachen’s spa and rehabilitation quarter. It has preserved the charm of a quiet city quarter with its own history and is very famous among Aachen locals and guests.
Mineral thermal springs in Burtscheid

The Burtscheid mineral thermal springs with their 73°C are the hottest springs within Central Europe and are especially suited for alleviation of the following health complaints:

- Rheumatic disorders
- Degenerative disorders of the musculoskeletal system
- Conditions following accidents, secondary treatment of paralysis, and surgery on the Musculoskeletal System
- Joint alterations due to gout

Today the bathing tradition in the mineral thermal water of the medicinal springs is being continued in a modern form in the Carolus Thermen Bad Aachen. More information under www.carolus-thermen.de

Note
Compared with the Burtscheid springs, the Aachen springs contain a slightly higher proportion of free hydrogen sulphide (H2S).

Spa and rehabilitation clinics

Medical specialists, trained qualified personnel and a healthy environment provide for optimal rehabilitation during your stay and make it a successful experience.

Arrival & mobility

Enviromental Zone Aachen

As of February 2016, Aachen has an Enviromental Zone. For the most part, the boundary of the Enviromental Zone follows Aachen’s outer ring road. In order to be able to drive your vehicle into Aachen’s city centre, you now need a so-called ‘Green Sticker’.

Outside the Enviromental Zone there are in total four park-&-ride areas from where you can catch a bus into the city centre on a regular basis.

- Jülicher Straße/Berliner Ring
- Tivoli-Parkhaus (Krefelder Straße)
- Waldfriedhof (Monschauer Straße)
- Westfriedhof (Vaalser Straße)

Note

With the park + ride ticket up to five persons can park on week days for € 5,- and go by bus within the area of the Alleenring (return journey). www.aachen.de/parkandride

Local public transport in Aachen

The local public transport is organised very well. All areas in the inner city and the suburbs are reachable by bus or train. For the area of the AVV (Aachener Verkehrsverbund) you need only one ticket for bus and train.

More information: www.aseag.de or www.avv.de

Tip
During the Christmas Market there is a coach parking at the ‘Bendplatz’. You are allowed to park your coach there throughout the entire day toll-free.
